Victory, though certainly important, is perhaps not the primary question. Far more significant is the manner of play, for these two teams on the field below us must represent not only themselves and their schools, but nearly a century of undying sportsmanship.

In similar settings throughout the nation, emotions run high as hundreds of high school teams prepare for rivalries, both old and new. But it is here in the shadow of the oldest college in the country that tradition reigns supreme. What game can possibly match this, our oldest high school football classic? It is fitting indeed that such a game be played on Thanksgiving Day, our oldest traditional holiday.

Harvard Stadium 1963 marks the 77th annual contest in the ageless Latin-English rivalry. As the walls of this ivy-clad stadium swell with thousands of fans, the fervor of past performances emerges strong in the atmosphere enveloping the coming game.

The contest will be hard fought as always. The teams are evenly matched. Prediction is impossible. The coaches shout their final words of encouragement, and twenty-two young athletes take their positions. The vibrant strains of Our National Anthem echo throughout the stadium as Latin and English fans rise in unison to salute the "Stars and Stripes." The game has begun.

Regardless of the outcome, both teams may be proud, knowing that they have brought honor to their respective schools. Soon, the echoes of today's crowd will be added to those of past years; today's game to the records, but the spirit of this great classic will not fade, remaining instead as an inspiration to future generations.

22nd Game of the Series

Nov. 26, 1908 . . . EHS 6, BLS 6 . . . American League Grounds—Rainy morning, 55 degree temp.—25-20 min. periods—BLS favored to win for first time in five years—Notwithstanding rain and mud, both teams put on a great battle—EHS outplayed LATIN in almost every department—Neither team made a first down in first eight minutes—In the middle of the period, Capt. Walter Cleary intercepted forward pass and ran 45 yards for T.D.—He also kicked for the point—EHS couldn't gain, and a punting duel ensued between Lennie Upham for EHS, and "Ginger" Fraser for BLS.—EHS gained about 25 yards in every exchange of punts.

In second period, EHS went from midfield to a T.D. in ten plays. Upham went over from the 2 and scored point after.—Cleary, Mal Logan, Bill Pendergast and Vin Allison for BLS, and Upham, John O'Brien, Sturgis Pishon and Tom McCabe for EHS were powerful.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

27th Game of the Series

1913 . . . EHS 21, BLS 0 . . . Fenway Park . . . Cold day . . . Attendance 5000. This was the first English victory in five years. This was Fred J. O'Brien's fifth year of coaching BLS while it was the second and last year that English was coached by Fred L. O'Brien. Charles FitzGerald was on the squad, but did not play against English. This game was refereed by one of the best in the country, the late Nate Tufts of Waltham. O'Connor, Maloney, and Shelburne made the touchdowns, and Captain Bob Ignico kicked the points after the T.D.'s. The teams lined up as follows: EHS—LE, O'Connor; LT, Ignico; LG, Brown and Miller; C, Tremble and Lowe; RG, Algar; RT, McNamara and McDonald; RE, Hall; QB, Coughlin; LHB, McKenzie and Wells; RHB, Maloney and Monagle; FB, Shelburne. Latin School: RE, Besarick; RT, Cotter; RG, Hunt; C, Walsh; LG, Young and Povah; LT, Hamlin and J. Martin; LE, Enright; QB, Emeil Martin; RHB, J. O'Dowd; LHB, Dolson; and FB, Capt. Frank McCarthy.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

52nd Game of the Series

1938 . . . EHS 6, BLS 0 . . . 20,000 present . . . The Blue was given only one scoring opportunity—and cashed in . . . Fourth down on BLS 24, Lambert, present assistant coach at BLS back to kick—pass from center sailed far over his head—chased ball, picked up on one-yard line and was promptly tackled by King (E) . . . The Blue's ball . . . Scored immediately . . . Reale thru the line . . . Twice Latin was in position to score when ball carrying of Hoar, Beyer and Havey brought Latin close to goal . . . EHS line turned back all tries when goal line was threatened . . . Krajewski (L) blocked Reale's punt on EHS seven, but Latin's drive fizzled on the Blue's one . . . Stars to Capt. Vin Hickey, Marty Howard, Joe King and Francis Reale for the Blue . . . For the Purple and White—Co-Captains Wally Hoar and Ed Lambert, Beyer and Krajewski.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

57th Game of the Series

Nov. 25, 1943 . . . EHS 0, BLS 0 . . . Braves Field.—Attendance 25,000—Beautiful day overhead, 28 degree temp.—Muddy field, after raining parts of three previous days.—During season neither team had lost or been tied.—EHS had not even been scored upon. ENGLISH favored to win.—Powell—It was Powell all morning—Moved the EHS team from its own 5 to the BLS 40 on three rushes around his own right end.—Time expired before he could score, leaving BLS in a badly disorganized state at the half.

After the intermission and Fitzie's pep talk, BLS fought with determination, but could not score, and neither did EHS.—Powell to Brady was good for 40 yards.—Brady was stopped on the 18 by Peter Garvin, BLS fullback.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

62nd Game of the Series

Nov. 25, 1948 . . . BLS 19, EHS 0 . . . Harvard Stadium—Cloudy—37 degree temp.—Attendance 23,000. Bill Stewart's first year as EHS Coach.—BLS expected to win by two touchdowns—BLS beats EHS for first time in 7 years.—LATIN, carried mainly on the shoulders of Lee Markoff, ran all over ENGLISH before drizzle-drenched fans, who sat in on the 62nd renewal of the oldest high school rivalry in the country.—Every time Markoff took the ball, he advanced—twice running for T.D.'s.

In the second period he sparked a 58-yard drive with a 15-yard jaunt sandwiched among 5 five-yard carries for his first T.D.—In third period, his 15-yard scoot set up Ed Dempsey's score on a pass from Dick Walsh.—In the final minutes of the game, Markoff twisted his way 34 yards into the end zone. Harvey Wolfe kicked the point-after. In contrast, EHS had no one who could catch Markoff, or any of the other LATIN backs. The nearest EHS got to the LATIN goal line was when Dick Baxter was grounded on the 48, after taking a pass from Stuart. Yards gained by rushing, BLS 346—EHS 27.

TEN YEARS AGO 67th Game of the Series

Nov. 26, 1953 . . . BLS 31, EHS 25 . . . Harvard Stadium—FAIR DAY—49 degree temp., Attendance 12,000.—Ground soft—Rained previous day.—A right-left combination, plus the ability to cash in on breaks, gave BLS the victory over EHS in the 67th annual game. This was one of the wildest games, as both teams went on offensive binges, much to the delight of those present and thousands thru T.V.—BLS weapons were Co-capt. "Boots" Connelly and Norman "Duke" Schnider, each of whom scored twice.—As good as this pair was, only butter-fingered receivers prevented Bill McDonough from stealing the show.—The tall EHS quarterback passed for two T.D.'s and set up a third.—Five times, other passes were dropped.—BLS led in first period, 13-7.—Teams were tied at half, 13 all. BLS ahead 25-13, in third period.—Beckett scored twice for EHS, Lorden and P. McDonough, once each, while Kirk made a T.D. for BLS. Schnider's extra point was a placement.—P. McDonough's extra point was on a pass from W. McDonough.—Yards gained in rushes, BLS 353—EHS 117.

FIVE YEARS AGO 72nd Game of the Series

1958 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . BLS 26, EHS 24 . . . Windy day . . . 34 temp. . . . Attendance 18,000 . . . There have been many thrilling games in this old series, but the writer feels certain that the 1958 contest will be remembered as the best game Latin School ever won. Why? Figure it out for yourself. BLS was behind 6 to 0 at end of first period—that was easy—behind 18 to 6 at end of second, which was most discouraging. It was still tragic at the end of the third, with English out front by a 24 to 12 score, with only twelve minutes left to play. It seemed that Latin's record and championship had "gone out the window."

From this point on Tommy Bilodeau thrilled all with his reckless and daring play. He completed only seven passes out of 17 attempts, but good for 269 yards, three touchdowns, and the decisive two-point conversion in what ranks as the finest passing display in the 73-year history of the oldest of all public school rivalries. The fact that EHS made two serious fumbles in the final period cannot take any credit away from Bilodeau, as he took advantage of these lapses. Bob Williams pounced on one fumble on the EHS 14-yard line, which set up a 14-yard sweep by Bilodeau on a fake double reverse.

On the next kickoff, EHS worked the ball down to the 6-yard line and BLS took over with four minutes to play. Bilodeau punted to the 40-yard line, and EHS made its second fumble, Bob Wallace recovering for BLS. Seven plays later, he threw a 36-yard pass to Rosenthal for a touchdown and BLS went ahead to stay. In the third period, Bilodeau threw a pass from behind his own goal line to Mulcahy for a touchdown, the pass-run covering 96 yards. He also passed successfully three times on fourth downs. Co-captains Ernie Zissis and Walter Kelley, Ed Costello and Garibaldi played well for BLS while Dick Areglado and Link Chandler made plenty of trouble for BLS in the first half. EHS made 13 first downs, gained 206 yards rushing, completed 8 out of 12 passes for 108 yards. BLS made 6 first downs and gained 93 yards rushing. EHS also recovered two BLS fumbles. EHS was penalized 40 yards, BLS 30 yards. TD's for EHS were made by Areglado (2), Messina and Kiriakopoulos. Mulcahy made two, and Rosenthal and Bilodeau one each for BLS.

LAST YEAR 76th Game of the Series

Sunday, Nov. 25, 1962 at White Stadium . . . EHS 32, BLS 6 . . . Overflow attendance of nearly 12,000. For the second successive year English defeated Latin School and won the City Championship. In 1954 the Thanksgiving Day game was postponed until the following Saturday, while last year's game was postponed until Sunday, this being only twice in over 70 years that these two rivals were unable to play on the holiday.

In the first half Latin School made only one first down and gained only two yards in rushing and five yards in passing. English had a well balanced back-field of Hickman, Johnson, and Marks, and a staunch defense that blasted Latin School. Ben Marks scored twice and gained 83 yards in 16 rushes, while Preston Johnson scored once and gained 85 yards in 18 rushes. However, the best executed play of the game was in the last five minutes when Bob Allen, from the 41-yard line on a draw play, ran straight ahead unmolested into the end zone for Latin's only score. English scored six points in the first and third periods and twelve in the second and eight in the last period.
